RADICAL RIOTERS.

Sheriff Albert McCorkle, of Shelby County, Murdered by a Republican—Intense Excitement Over the Foul Deed—The Murderer Reported to Have Been Caught at Flat Rock.

At Shelbyville, on Saturday afternoon, during the progress of a Republican meeting, which was addressed by Ben Harrison, and a Greenback meeting addressed by Congressman De La Matry, a gang of Republican roughs incited a riot, which was quelled after great difficulty by Sheriff McCorkle and a posse of men. The Sheriff then left the scene, and while walking down the street he was deliberately murdered in cold blood by a Republican named Edward Kennedy. The ball fired by Kennedy struck the Sheriff in the breast and passed through the upper part of the left lung, resulting in his death yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Kennedy was goaded to the commission of the terrible deed by his brother and a gang of Republicans who were all drunk.

After the shooting Kennedy walked leisurely east on Broadway, and on reaching the first alley he disappeared. No traces of his whereabouts have been obtained which will lead to his capture. Hundreds of rumors fill the air as to the course he took, which, when traced, only misled, and thus far have proven abortive. A report reached the Democrat office shortly after nightfall last evening that the boy had been seen and identified by a number of farmers in Washington Township, ten miles south of the city, but the report lacks confirmation. Mounted men are scouring the country in all directions, and if he is in the County his apprehension is a question of only a few hours.

Kennedy is the third son of a respectable furniture man of that city, and is scarcely more than seventeen years of age. His older brother, Gilbert, is a notorious character, and aided and abetted the younger man in the commission of the fight which first led Mr. McCorkle to attempt their arrest. Strangely enough, Mr. McCorkle has recently befriended his assassin, having employed him in the Democratic drum corps, and otherwise aided him.

The city is shrouded in gloom, and dozens of telegrams are constantly being received by Mr. W. S. Ray, McCorkle's partner, while hundreds of the best citizens of the county, irrespective of party, denounce the horrible transaction in the severest language. The court house is heavily draped in mourning, and flags at half mast depend from other public buildings.

The remains will lie in state at the court house to-morrow, thus affording all to get a last view of their kind hearted friend. The burial will take place at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

A rumor is now current that the murderer has been caught at or near Flat Rock, a small station on the J. M. and L. Road, about twelve miles southwest of here. This has given a new impetus to the intense excitement already existing. The cooler heads have so far been able to prevent any violent demonstration, and the day has passed off without violence. From an early hour until late to-night large numbers of people could be seen gathered together at almost every street corner. The court house yard, adjoining the residence of the sheriff, has been packed all day.

To-day is set for the last grand rally of the campaign. As is always the case, thousands were expected. Now, the news of the dastardly and cowardly murder having reached every portion of the county, every Democrat will be here. Our greatest hope centers around Governor Hendricks. No man living can do more than to prevent an outbreak. His conservative and timely counsels will be like oil upon troubled waters. They will strangely contrast with the malignant, inflammatory and ill timed remarks of General Harrison, made here on Saturday. He grew furious and livid with rage; he denounced Democrats bitterly and unstinted. Democrats have not forgotten the similar speech he made here in 1876, followed by the negro riot on the same evening, when our town became a scene of pillage and bloodshed.

When McCorkle received the fatal wound he asked his physician if he might send for his attorney to draw up his will, as he had a poor, old mother, whom he wished to provide for, not once stopping to ask the doctor of his own condition and probable recovery or death.

POLITICAL POINTS.

How the Republican Corruption Fund is Being Distributed—Allen County Gets $5,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The National Democratic Committee have positive evidence that the Republican State Committee of Indiana have made the following distributions of part of the syndicate of bankers and banks' contributions of money subscribed in this city for use in the counties of Indiana: Marion county, $10,000; Allen county, $5,000; Floyd county, $4,000; Vanderburgh county, $3,000; Tippecanoe county, $3,000; St. Joseph county, $3,000; eighty-seven other counties, an average of $2,000 each, $174,000; total, $202,000, to be used only on Tuesday next, the 12th.

The New York Tribune is still publishing a cut of the rebel flag from the Daily Telegraph, of Hot Springs, Ark., although Mr. Webber, the editor of the paper, an ex-union soldier, and never heretofore a strong Democrat, has shown that the use of this cut was a mere mistake of the printer, and entirely without the knowledge of any responsible person, the block having been picked out of old material laying about the office under the supposition that the cut was one of a United States flag, and the blunder not being noticed until after the edition was distributed. This campaign trick shows the sort of material upon which the Republican campaign is dependent. The famous slanders of the Republican press and their correspondents, charging the Democratic party with flooding the States of Indiana and Ohio with roughs, thugs and repeaters, are utterly false. These charges are made to cover Republican frauds and mislead the honest public as to the nefarious attempts of Republicans in this direction. We state positively and unqualifiedly that there have not left this city under direction of our committee or with its knowledge to exceed eleven men for both of the States of Indiana and Ohio, and the sole object of sending these eleven men was to identify over four hundred ward politicians who have left here in the interests of the Republican managers, and, if possible, to check them in their attempted pollution of the ballot in those States. That committee has reasonable proof that a large number of Philadelphia repeaters have been appointed United States Deputy Marshals for the State of Indiana and distributed through the rural districts.

The following dispatch was received at the National Headquarters at a late hour last night:

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 9.

HON. L. M. SCOTT:

Twenty thousand merchants, manufacturers and business men of Philadelphia, are now in session, presided over by Henry B. Latham, the head of the largest lead house in the country. They protest against the assertion that the business or financial interests have anything to fear from the election of Hancock, but on the contrary his election is the only way to bring peace to the whole country and permanent prosperity to all business interests.

(Signed) LEWIS CASSIDY.

Judge Blatchford, of the United States court, has granted an order requiring John I. Davenport to appear before him and show cause why he should not be removed from office for violation of law and abuse of his power as chief supervisor of elections. Good lawyers of all parties concede that the case against Davenport is sufficiently strong to require his removal from office, and that he will probably be removed.

Police Court.

Andrew Harrigan, a plain drunk, was fined $3 and costs.

Frank Ashley, same offense, $2.

Frank Levantway, for endeavoring to evict a colored youth named Maxwell, paid $5.

Frank Webb, a disorderly, was taxed $5.

The hotels are filling up with deputy marshals, repeaters, shoulder-bitters, thugs, blood-tubs, etc., from all parts of the compass. Let every Democrat do his duty faithfully to-morrow, in spite of the infernal scoundrels who have been imported into our midst to thwart the will of the people.

TERRIBLE COLLISION.

Twenty-One Persons Killed and Many Wounded on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—A frightful collision occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad, near the Twenty-eighth street crossing, shortly before midnight yesterday morning. Nine people were killed outright, and eleven more have died since, making in all twenty deaths, while as many more are dangerously hurt, whom physicians say cannot recover. In addition to those there are a large number who are but slightly injured. The first section of the train accommodation going East, left the Union depot at 11:30 p. m., having a large crowd of passengers, who had been to the city to participate in the closing exercises of the Exposition and to witness the Democratic demonstration. The back platform was so crowded that the headlight on the second section, following, could not be seen. The first section stopped at the regular station, Twenty-eighth street, where they were delayed on account of another train which was in the next block. The second section came along at a good speed, but owing to the crowds on the back platform of the first section the signal lights were hidden from view, and consequently the engineer of the second section did not see the train ahead of him until he was so near to it that his train could not be checked in time to arrest a collision, and the engine went crashing into the rear coach of the first section, as packed as it was with human beings. Among those unfortunates the engine buried itself to the very car windows in among screaming, suffering men, women and children, mangled all who were in its course. The boiler head of the colliding engine was burst off by the shock, and scalding water and steam poured over the occupants of the car as it bent on completing the horrible work that had gone before. It is impossible to describe the fearful scene that followed. The moans of dying and wounded, and the shrieks of those who had lost their friends was frightful.

The name of the engineer of the second locomotive is Julius Huly, and that of the fireman, Rambo. Both are residents of Pittsburgh, and escaped uninjured, notwithstanding they stuck to the engine when it ploughed through the rear car of the other train. Up to the present time twenty-one deaths have occurred, as follows: Edward Prentner, Pittsburgh, scalded, died this morning; Homer Kepple, aged twenty, lives in the East End, scalded; Mrs. Margaret Jacobs, Pittsburgh, aged fifty, crushed and scalded; John Torley, Pittsburgh, aged forty-eight, scalded and burned; Kate Torley, daughter of John Torley, aged sixteen, scalded; John Jessie Simcox, Pittsburgh, aged sixteen, inhalation of steam; Annie M. Schuster, Pittsburgh, aged twenty-two, inhalation of steam; Melton H. Edwards, son of Hon. Matthew Edwards, aged twenty-five, scalded and inhalation; Miss Dorah Taylor, Pittsburgh, about twenty-two, inhalation of steam; Jas. O'Neal, Calif. rnia, Pa., died this morning from scalds received, aged thirty; Charles Hetzell, Pittsburgh, scalded; Edward Butler, baggage master, aged twenty-one, crushed and burned; Isaac K. Love, Edgewood, Pa., aged seventeen, crushed; Wm. Love, a brother of Isaac, aged nineteen years, scalded and frightfully mutilated; Mrs. Elizabeth Boyd, Pittsburgh, aged thirty-five, inhalation of steam; Miss Rosanna Boyd, sister-in-law of Mrs. Boyd, aged twenty, inhalation; David Ballenger, railroad employe, head cut from the body; Samuel W. Elliott, conductor, aged fifty-two, crushed; James McMeahan, Dallas Station, aged sixty, scalded; William Linnhardt, East End, died from internal injuries and inhalation of steam; Miss Emma Winnburg, Pittsburgh, scalded.

Three Persons Killed in a Tunnel.
HUNTINGDON, Pa., Oct. 11.—John Carson and his son, together with another boy named Benner, of Spruce creek, attempted to walk through the Spruce Creek tunnel yesterday, but were run over by the Pacific express east and all instantly killed.

An Elevated Railway Accident.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Early this morning a train going down town on the Second avenue elevated railroad during the fog ran into the rear of the train ahead and Edward Cooper, engineer of the rear train was killed. The engine and three cars were badly broken.

An old Democrat of Boone county Killed by a Republican Rough.

Two men, J. R. Jones and E. A. McCaslin, of Brownsburg, Hendricks county, came yesterday evening to the Sentinel office, and gave an account of a foul and most unnatural murder in Boone county. For reckless cruelty and villainy of purpose it transcends any of the late atrocities. The murder was committed one and a half miles west of a place called Spickle Point, Harrison Township, Boone county. A political discussion between William Toney, a Democrat, and the husband of his step daughter, Charles Allen, a Republican, terminated in Allen knocking Toney down. Mrs. Toney, the mother of Allen's wife then took a club and felled him to the earth. He picked himself up and started for home, swearing that he would procure his gun, return and kill the whole copper-head crew. The Toney's, it appears, were anticipating no further trouble, and in the mean time had eaten supper, when Allen returned, armed with a rifle, and taking a fatally deliberate aim, shot the old gentleman dead. Being 75 years of age, and quite feeble, his death was almost instantaneous. The murderer then escaped across the fields, and up to the last report had not yet been overhauled and arrested. The deceased was known as a quiet, peaceable citizen, and his death—for he had attained an age that commands respect—under any circumstances would have been deplored. The sad affair occurred about 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

A Murder Shrouded in Mystery.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 11.—About ten o'clock on Saturday night Charles Bluet, a young man living with his widowed mother at 216 Sycamore street, was found dead on the doorstep of Notre Dame Convent, on Sixth, near Broadway. The blood was issuing from his mouth, and the physician who saw him called it death from hemorrhage. Being unknown, he was taken to the morgue. To-day the Coroner found he had been stabbed in the breast and died from internal hemorrhage. There is no clue to the murderer.

Mr. Landers in the City.

Hon. Franklin Landers, the plain and unassuming old gentleman who will be elected Governor of Indiana to-morrow, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Warsaw and spent the day at the Aveline House. He was called upon by a number of our local politicians, and in the afternoon in company with Hon. John P. Irish, of Iowa, Frank Wolke, Esq., and County Clerk M. V. B. Spencer, Esq., the distinguished gentleman enjoyed a carriage ride into the country. In conversation with Mr. Landers he expressed himself as feeling confident that the Democratic party would achieve a grand victory to-morrow, and that the entire State ticket would be triumphantly elected. Mr. Landers is looking remarkably well, and this morning left Fort Wayne for his home at Indianapolis.

Goodwin's Frolics.

Amid the whirl of political excitement our people should not forget that Mr. N. C. Goodwin, Jr., will appear at the Grand Opera House to-night in his wonderful imitations of all the principal dramatic stellar lights. The "Hobbies" is a play made to delight, and has made a brilliant hit wherever it has been produced. Go to the Grand to-night.

Attention H. and E. First Voters.

All members of the Hancock and English First Voters will meet at their hall this evening at 7:30 sharp, in full uniform. Let every member be sure to attend. E. EDGERTON, J. C. WILLARD, Col. commanding, Adjutant.

Let every member of the Hancock and English First Voters if he wishes the success of the Democratic ticket attend the meeting this evening.

No Need to Show First or Second Papers.

The following telegram has been received by Captain C. Hettler:

There is no law requiring foreign citizens to show first or second papers. The law points what they shall do if challenged. Officers of elections requiring men offering to vote to show papers should be arrested.

JAMES H. RICE, Secretary Democratic State Central Committee.

Existence of an Emergency.

We earnestly pray that our patriotic fellow citizens will exercise every effort to promote the welfare of the mercantile, manufacturing and laboring interests of this country by voting and working for the election of Franklin Landers, General Hancock and the entire Democratic ticket:

August C. Trentman, wholesale grocer; Fred Eckert, pork packer; S. Frieberger, wholesale leather dealer; John Mohr, jr.; P. A. Randall, attorney at law; J. D. Bond; George Fox; C. L. Centlivre, brewer; A. S. Lauferty, clothier; Max Nirdlinger; A. J. Friend, clothier; Wm. Meyer, druggist; Chas. Nathan & Co., wholesale liquors; Jacob Weil, dealer in hides; Nathan Bros. & Straus, wholesale liquors; Geo. W. Loag, dentist; Geo. COLUMBIA CITY.

How Some of the Garfield First Voters Conducted Themselves.
Correspondence of the SENTINEL.

Several of the Garfield First Voters conducted themselves in a very disgraceful manner here on Saturday night. A short time after their arrival they were seen on the streets in a beastly state of intoxication, with two damsels of very bad repute belonging to one of our hotels. Their conduct was a disgrace to the rest of their comrades, and they were bitterly denounced on all hands. They are of very respectable parentage, and for this alone their names are withheld from the public.

To-night the Hancock boys will have a grand torchlight procession. Over 500 torches will be in line; and on Tuesday we will show the Rads a thing or two. Put down Little Whitley at 600 for Landers, Colerick and the rest of the ticket.

Colonel McDonald addressed an audience of over a thousand people at South Whitley on Saturday night.

A Republican Outrage.

Two weeks ago to-night three republicans, whose names can be furnished if necessary, entered the residence of a man named Daniel Dolan, near No. 1 School House, in this county. While the old gentleman was lying down on the bed, the trio approached him and inquired who he was going to vote for; Mr. Dolan not dreaming that they intended him any harm, replied, that if he lived he would vote for Hancock; whereupon the three men grasped the old man, who is about sixty years of age, and, pulling him out of bed on to the floor, pounced upon him and beat him in a shocking manner. When they had concluded their hellish work they left the house at once. The affair aroused the utmost indignation among the neighbors, and the villains may yet rue their action. Mr. Dolan is confined to his bed in consequence of the severe injuries he sustained. Talk about KuKluxism, this is a fair sample of it. Let the Gazette or any one else attempt to deny the above statement, and we are forward with the affidavits of the farmers living in the vicinity of the outrage.

Don't Do It To-morrow

For the SENTINEL.

The habit of riding around from ward to ward election day by those who ought to remain in their wards and work is very offensive to those at work at the polls. 5TH WARD.

The post office gang must go.
Shoot that rebel flag in the post office organ.

Vote for the protection of labor by voting the Democratic ticket.

To-morrow be at the polls workingmen, and vote the Democratic ticket.

Hang your banners on the outer wall, and vote the Democratic ticket straight to-morrow.

Is it Sol Bash, of Colorado, who is running for Sheriff on the poor old Gazette's ticket?

Indiana is Democratic, and the people will establish that fact to-morrow beyond a doubt.

If we are accorded a fair election to-morrow, Indiana will give a Democratic majority of 15,000.

A vote for Landers for Governor to-morrow will be two votes for Hancock at the November election.

Look out for Republican roorbacks in the poor old Gazette to-morrow morning, and vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Examine your ticket and see that the name of Frank K. Cosgrove, for sheriff, is correctly printed upon it, and then deposit it in the ballot box.

Workingmen, do not be cheated out of your votes by Republican lies that will be circulated to-morrow morning, but vote the Democratic ticket straight.

Every workingman should devote to-morrow to the service of his country by attending the polls of the election, and see that the people's ticket, the Democratic ticket, is elected.

He who loves his country and its free and liberal institutions should be at the polls early to-morrow morning, vote the Democratic ticket, and see that his neighbors do the same.

Look out for bogus tickets circulating under the head of Democratic. Read the names on the ticket and see that they are all the regular Democratic nominees and then put it in the ballot box.

Watch the polls and arrest repeaters. Arrest all men who offer a bribe, and thus secure a fair election. Get out the full vote. Crush bribery and corruption, at the ballot box along with dishonesty and incompetency in public affairs.

THE TWO CANDIDATES.

Choose Ye Between Them.

To-morrow the people of Indiana will be called upon to choose a governor of our great state. Reader, if you have not yet determined for whom you will deposit your ballot, read carefully the following:

Mr. Porter is a lawyer—only that and nothing more. His fortune was inherited. His capital is largely in bonds, but his profession, for he is a brilliant lawyer, as well as successful office holder, must yield a princely income. He is at the head of no industry; he is identified with no manufacturing interest, and his white hands were never profaned by even an hour of work. Since he became of age, amid all the "popular upheavals" and changes of administration, he has managed to light upon his political feet and wear in triumph the royal purple of office.

Whatever Mr. Landers is he owes to himself—his own stout heart and willing hands. Beginning life by holding the plow in the furrow he has to-day attained that eminence where he gives remunerative employment to numbers of laborers that carries comfort to hundreds of homes. The position he occupies before the State to-day is, if possible, brighter, for the reason that he was once a farm hand. It shows the possibilities within the reach of a young man, however destitute he begins life. Mr. Landers will be chosen Governor of Indiana. The American people have never shown a weakness for orators, authors of well-turned sentences and dressed elegance, when places of executive trust were to be filled. The Democratic candidate possesses, in a marked degree, those elements of character that the world in all ages has, by universal consent, pronounced sterling.

Like all mongrel sheets, the Mail of yesterday came out as a full-fledged Radical organ, with the Gazette's rebel flag cut and all. Money is said to make the mare go, and it also makes the average newspaper go just as the man who furnishes the money desires that it shall go. The independent press of the present day is always in the market, and, for a trifle of filthy lucre, will flop this way and that way and tother way a dozen times in a single issue. All right-minded and honorable men pray to be relieved from the "independent" press.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says: We want the voters of this state to know that United States Marshal Dudley is the first United States Marshal since the formation of this government who has moved the Marshal's office into the rooms of the Republican committee, and is there with all the deputies and all the United States detectives in various dirty echemes. Dudley is deep in the muddy pool of politics and will do any sort of scavenger work for the party that furnishes him with bread and plunder.

No man who loves his country and its free institutions can conscientiously vote with the Republican party that ignores the rights of workingmen, attempts to bring their labor in competition with the pauper labor of Europe, refuses protection to labor, advocates the social equality of the negro with the white man, teaches imperialism and believes that the United States should be a monarchy, and that a government by the people, of the people and for the people is a fiction.

The feeble old Gazette still keeps the rebel flag at the head of its columns. It delights in the sight of that old flag, and, at heart, hates the stars and stripes. Oh! how have the mighty fallen. Another somersault of that feeble old concern will turn it inside out. Tear down that rebel flag that so delights your chatterer's eyes, and have some regard for your friends, if not for your honor.

The Sentinel again kindly asks the poor old Gazette to define its position with regard to a protective tariff. It chatters about protecting labor, and the pauper labor of Europe; but fails to give an intelligent statement what all its chattering on those subjects really means. Let a suffering people have your views if they are crude and a little mixed.

How can a man spend his time in Colorado looking after snide mining companies and act as Sheriff of Allen county too? It cannot be done, and the voters will vote for a home man—Frank K. Cosgrove.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS!

Instructions to Officers of Elections, Committeemen, and Others.

To Committeemen, Inspectors, Judges, Challengers, Watchers, etc.: So open and unceasing is the purpose of the Republicans to perpetrate every conceivable fraud upon the ballot in the ensuing election, that we are impelled to address to you this note of warning and instruction.

In the first place, in every Precinct where the Trustee or Inspector is a Republican, do not fail to select keen, watchful and sober Democrats of integrity and sagacity for Judge and Poll Clerk, and not later than on Monday before the election present their names for appointment. Should the Trustee or Inspector refuse to appoint the persons so designated, it will be clear evidence of intended fraud, and your vigilance must be redoubled.

The attempts to pervert the ballot will be two-fold:

1. To get into the box ballots which have no right to be there.

2. To falsify the count of the ballots as found.

Under the first head will come the attempt to vote men imported from other States. Your knowledge of your Districts ought to afford a chief protection against this old and well known scheme. You will have certain other aids this year, which will afford you efficient co-operation. But remember especially that every challenged man must produce not simply a freeholder, but one who has been a resident householder and freeholder in the Precinct for one year next before the election. No ownership of cemetery lots, nor of a worthless bit of ground, will answer. See that this law is thoroughly applied.

Look carefully after double or "fantail" voting. This can only be done with the complicity of the Inspector. Watch his manner of receiving tickets, and it will indicate whether he is doing his duty honestly.

Any attempt on the part of an Inspector to fold the ends of a ticket together, so as to put it into the box double, thus leaving a crease in the ticket, is suspicious. Any unnecessary handling of the ticket, under pretense of folding it, means probably that he is crossing out the first name on the ticket with a pencil concealed under his nail or elsewhere. Be watchful of every act which is not open and necessary.

After the voting is finished, it is necessary that your vigilance should not be relaxed for a moment. Boxes similar in appearance are sometimes substituted for the real ballot box. No opportunity must be given for this. Avail yourselves in all cases of the rights the law gives you, and have your two watchers where they can see the whole canvass. Let one of them attend to the calling off of the tickets, and the other to the tallying. A few mistakes in tallying, by which Democratic tickets are credited to Republican candidates, are easy to be made, if the clerks are unreliable. Cases have been known too, in which the Inspector has inadvertently called off Democratic tickets as Republican ones. See to it that no such mistakes occur at your polls.

We have not attempted in this note to hint at half the methods which will be put into practice by our opponents. We look to you, by your zeal, your fidelity and your vigilance, to counteract and defeat them.

Above all things, arouse your people to a sense of the necessity of strongly manning the polls on the day of election. At least twenty faithful and fearless Democrats should be present during the day to prevent violence to the rights of citizens.

You have no dearer possession than your right of franchise. Give one day to its protection.

When a person of foreign birth presents himself to vote, having only taken out his "first papers" and is challenged, it is not necessary that he produce his papers in order to entitle him to vote. It is sufficient if he, like any other voter, makes the necessary affidavit as prescribed by law.

ALLEN CO. DEM. COMMITTEE.
FORT WAYNE, Oct. 8, 1880.

VOTE for Frank Cosgrove, Jr., for Sheriff, and thus rebuke the infamous slanders that have been heaped upon him by the Gazette people. He is a hard-working, honest young man who is deserving of your suffrages. Give him a lift.

REMEMBER, Democrats, that if Indiana gives the Democratic ticket a handsome majority to-morrow, Hancock will carry Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania, besides New York, New Jersey and Connecticut in November.

Let every workingman and every Democrat devote to-morrow to the service of his country, attend the polls and vote with the party that protects labor and requires honesty and fidelity in official places—the Democratic party.

It was believed by many that General Grant was a second little George Washington; but that idea has proved not correct. A great many good people now think he is a liar.

DEMOCRATS, BE ACTIVE!

Democrats, you have an unscrupulous foe to fight to-morrow. They have staked their money upon the result of this election, and by foul means they hope to succeed. Let "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" be your motto, and be on the alert and foil them at every turn. We particularly desire to impress upon the minds of the young men of the First Voters' Hancock club, whose limbs are lithe and whose courage is unmistakable, to watch with the eye of an eagle the ballot box. Look to it that no one votes who is not a legal voter. See to it that importations are not made upon us, and illegal votes cast. Give your time and attention to the interests of your party and your country to-morrow, and your reward will be commensurate with your zeal.

Will the poor old Gazette kindly give an afflicted people a little rest, and call off its jumping jack, that chatters through its editorial columns and not drive its readers to the lunatic asylum. Have a little regard for suffering humanity and chain the monkey.

The mission of the great moral teachers and leaders in the Republican party, Conkling, Beecher, Theodore Tilton, Josie Mansfield, the mutual friend George Francis Train, and others from the great eastern cities, have completed their work in Indiana and slunk out of sight again.

Bounce that young man from the position of a teacher in a Sunday school. It will not do to attempt religious teachings to our youth, and set a bad example before them by spending money to encourage drunkenness and immorality.

Vote the Democratic ticket and by so doing let the people know that you are identified with their interest, and desire the protection of labor against the aggressions of monopolists fostered and protected by the Republican party.

General Slocum says that if Gen. Grant says "that General Hancock did not select the battlefield at Gettysburg," Grant lies. No one has a better right to testify in the matter than General Slocum.

That tells the story—the great anxiety depicted on the countenances of Republican leaders. Their cause is hopeless and defeat is staring them full in their faces. The time has come for a change. The people demand it, and the voice of the people is the voice of God.

Don't Rub off the Enamel of the teeth with gritty preparations. The teeth are too valuable to be trifled with. When gone, you must have false ones or "gum" yourself through life. Use SOZODONT, which contains no grit. It cleanses the mouth and vitalizes the secretions.

DAY'S Kidney PAD

Bladder and Urinary Organs by Absorbing all humors, every trace of disease, and forcing into the system through the pores of the skin, nourishing and strengthening vegetable tonics, giving it wonderful power to cure at once

PAIN IN THE BACK. Side or Loins, Inflammation, and Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Diabetes, Dropsy, Gravel, Catarrh of the Bladder, Inability to Retain or Expel the Urine, Stone in the Bladder, High Colored, Scanty or Painful Urinating, Deposits, Casts or Shreds in the Urine.

NEURVUS & PHYSICAL DEBILITY and in fact every disease of these great organs, whether contracted by over work, strain, excessive drink, the abuse of nature or otherwise.

It supercedes entirely the inconveniences and troubles of taking nauseous and poisonous internal medicines.

It is worn exactly where needed, next to the body and immediately over the kidneys.

It is comfortable to the patient, safe, pleasant and reliable in its effects, but powerful in its action.

It can be worn at all times, in any climate, and is equally good for MAN, WOMAN OR CHILD. Do not be prejudiced. Give it a trial and be convinced that it is honest, reliable, effective and just what your feeble and exhausted body requires. Thousands are daily adding their testimony to the wonderful curative powers of this great remedy, who are being restored to perfect health after all other treatments and remedies have failed. Ask your druggist for it and accept no imitation or substitute. If he has not got it, send to us and receive it by return mail.

Descriptive Price List.—Regular Pad, $2; Special Pad, for Chronic, deep-seated or cases of long standing, $3; Children's Pad, for summer complaint, weak kidneys, etc., waiting, $1.50. Our book, "How a Life was Saved," containing a history of this great discovery, mailed free. Write for it.

TO YOUNG MEN. A Sure Cure.

The awful effect of early vice, which brings organic weakness, destroying both mind and body, is the most dreadful and PERMANENTLY CURED. The result before consumption sets in are palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, nervous diseases, dyspepsia, etc., with other conditions of mind so much to be feared, forgetfulness, chaos of ideas, sadness of spirit, ugly imagining, dislike to social life and brooding melancholy. Married men, or those entering on that happy life, aware of physical debility, excitability of the nervous organic diminution, or other irregularities, quickly assisted.

A quick cure guaranteed. NO MINERALS USED.

Young people losing their health, spending time with visiting quacks and unsuitable treatment, forcing diseases into their bodies with deadly poisons, causing fatal disorders to the head, throat, nose, liver and lungs, stomach and bowels, speedily cured. No false modesty should prevent them calling at once.

DR. WASSERZUG, at No. 34 West Main between Harrison and Calhoun streets, Fort Wayne, Indiana. The doctor can be consulted at any time, as his office and family residence are at the above place.

Dr. Wasserzug will positively stay here six months. Medicine for chronic diseases sent everywhere. Write and mention symptoms. P.O. Box 842, Fort Wayne, Ind. Aug. 18-8md&w

SPOT the Republican repeaters. THE Post Office Gang must go. THE centennial of the battle of King's Mountain, at Charlotte, N. C., was celebrated on Wednesday last.

VOTE the Democratic ticket on Tuesday next and save the State from the hands of Republican corruptionists and frauds.

THE general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church is in session in New York, and will continue during next week.

THERE is no doubt that the election laws of the United States were carefully framed, and make it hot for illegal voters. Republican repeaters cannot shield their frauds under those laws.

LOOK out for Republican importations of shoulder-hitters, blood-tubs, bummers, scalawags and ballot-box stuffers, to be at the polls of the election on Tuesday next to bulldoze Democrats.

DOES the negroes suppose that the Republican party that has traded in him during the past sixteen years has any use for him except to vote the Republican tickets in this or any other state? If he does he is simply mistaken.

THE people of this country are paying hundreds of millions of dollars annually to monopolies created and fostered by the Republican party, that rob the workingman of the profits of his labor and steals his children's bread.

WORKINGMEN who have a regard for their material interests will not fail to vote with the Democratic party, a party that has always protected labor and continues to guard the interests of workingmen.

WATCH the infernal repeaters and the imported negroes, and in lieu of allowing them the right to vote give them a place behind the bars in the calaboose. Be on hand, Democrats, before the polls open, prepared to give all such a warm reception.

THOUSANDS of repeaters, it is said, have been imported by Republicans to carry the election, showing conclusively that they do not regard the State Republican, and that they cannot carry the election except by bribery and fraudulent voting.

IT would certainly be a relief to the very limited number of readers of the poor old Gazette should the chatterer for that concern cease his illiterate, nonsensical vapors about a protective tariff, and tackle something he can comprehend, if possible.

A VOTE for Lander's for Governor, will be a vote for honesty in office the recognition of the rights of workingmen and protection to labor. A vote for Porter is a vote for the kid glove, silk-hat, patent-leather boots and silk stocking aristocracy.

VOTE for Frank Cosgrove for sheriff, a representative young man, who has never attempted to cheat farmers on the weight of their pork and the quality of their wool or in any way, but would give them down weight and fair measure.

FRANKLIN LANDERS, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is a representative, honest, upright, careful, moral, enterprising man, and should be elected by the largest majority ever before given a candidate for that high position in the State.

IT is claimed that General Grant has said that "Hancock is a weak, vain man and the most selfish man I know." Grant is undoubtedly a liar, and once upon a time was proved such by the members of Andrew Johnson's Cabinet including the Hon. Hugh McCulloch, whose word has never been doubted or his character questioned.

THAT Brainless jumping-jack that chatters for the poor old Gazette continues his senseless noise about a "protective tariff," without the least idea of what his language means. He fails to answer what a "tariff for revenue, discriminating in favor of labor," really is. Why don't you ask the responsible editor?

THE illness of Mr. Thomas Colerick, which resulted in the death of that young gentleman yesterday afternoon, prevented his brother, Hon. Walpole G. Colerick, the Democratic candidate for Congress, from filling a number of his engagements during the past two weeks. In the sad affliction which has befallen him the distinguished gentleman has the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Tom Colerick was a young gentleman who was universally respected and esteemed, and there are many who will drop a tear to his memory.

WHEN you go to the election polls tomorrow, Democrats, vote the ticket straight, from top to bottom, and then you will have nothing to regret in the future. Don't fail to Vote for Franklin Landers.

Vote for Isaac P. Gray.
Vote for John G. Shanklin.
Vote for Mahlon D. Manson.
Vote for William Fleming.

Vote for W. S. O'Rourke.
Vote for F. K. Cosgrove, jr.
Vote for John M. Taylor.
Vote for Francis Gladie.
Vote for William Gaffney.
Vote for W. H. Goshorn.

Vote for the Democratic ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket. It is bound to win.

VOTE with the party that protects labor and champions the rights of workingmen—the Democratic party.

A Word to Our Readers.

When you read of a remedy that will cure all diseases, beware of it; but when you read of a pure vegetable compound which claims to cure only certain parts of the body, and furnishes high proof that it does this, you can safely try it and with the assurance that it will help you. This is just what Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver cure does. It cures all trouble of the lower portion of the body and none others. It will not help the tooth-ache, ear-ache nor consumption, but it will put your body in a vigorous and healthy state where you can enjoy life and appreciate its good things. Try it.

My life was saved by Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—A. B. Lake, Salem, Ala. Oct. 6 d&w2w.

A Most Elegant Line of Fine Furniture,

For Sale at Retail, at Strictly Wholesale Prices.

A Rare Opportunity Which House-keepers Will Not be Slow to Embrace.

A year and a half since Foster Brothers conceived the idea of adding a complete line of Furniture to their immense Dry Goods Store, using for this purpose the second and third stories of their mammoth establishment. They saw they could do this without increasing their business expenses a single cent, as the clerks that sold their dry goods could also sell their furniture, thus enabling them to retail at strictly wholesale prices.

At the store they resolved:

First. To handle a finer line of goods than had ever before been shown by Fort Wayne houses.

Second. To purchase only of such manufacturers as have a well established reputation for turning out only the best made goods.

Third. To warrant every article sold to be exactly as represented, and not to fail in use because of any fault in its manufacture.

Fourth. To sell all kinds of furniture at not over one-half the profits charged by other houses.

Fifth. To have but one price and that the lowest possible cent at which they would be willing to sell an article, rather than have their customer go out of their doors without it.

They have adhered unflinchingly to these five rules, and the result has been their furniture sales for the first year exceeded the combine sales of any two other Fort Wayne houses.

At present they are exhibiting a nicer line than ever of Parlor, Library, Dining Room and Kitchen furniture of every description, and a most complete line of mattresses and spring beds, and invite you to make all your purchases in that line at their establishment. Goods shipped free of freight charges to all surrounding towns.

NUMBERED WITH THE DEAD

Is the Beloved Thomas Walpole Colerick.

At half-past two o'clock yesterday afternoon passed away from this earthly scene Thomas Walpole Colerick, the third surviving son of David H. Colerick, at the latter's residence, 88 East Berry street. For weeks and weeks past, since he took sick, the sufferer's bed was constantly surrounded by loving, watchful brothers and sisters, who smoothed down with tender hands the pillow of distress, and did all in their power to alleviate the terrible agony of the one now sleeping in Death's cold embrace. The deceased was in his twenty-eighth year, and was already one of the brightest lights of the legal fraternity in this city. Genial, whole, souled, and a close applicant to the study of the law, he was at once trusted and looked upon with more than ordinary respect by all. He was generous to a fault, always more ready to give than receive, and now, that his soul has been launched upon eternity, we dare say that he leaves not an enemy behind. Those who knew him loved him. His daily life was singularly exemplary and worthy of emulation by every young man starting in life. His whole ambition in life was to become an adept in his chosen profession, and had the cold hand of death been held aloof for years to come the fond hopes of those who loved him might have reached a happy fruition, for Tom Colerick possessed more than ordinary talents. To those he loved and leaves behind goes out the hearty sympathy of the entire community in this the dark hour of their affliction, and may the rays of heavenly hope gleam in upon the darkened household, where their loved one lies stark and cold, and cheer with their effulgence the sorrowing ones Tom Colerick leaves behind.

THE LAST GUN

Fired at the Rink With Fatal Effect by Hon. J. P. Irish, Saturday Evening.—An Enthusiastic Outpouring of the Democracy.

The announcement on Saturday that Hon. John P. Irish, Iowa's gifted son, would speak at the Academy in the evening, was sufficient to pack that large structure with an audience that filled every available space in it. A goodly portion of the fair sex was in attendance, and those unacquainted with the nature of the meeting would be led to suppose that a play of unusual excellence was about to be presented. The distinguished speaker of the evening, during his last visit to this city, made a decided hit and every one was anxious to hear him again. We do not deem it an exaggeration to say that Mr. Irish is one of the most gifted stump speakers ever heard in this city. A vein of quiet humor pervades all his remarks, and his manner of delivery is most pleasing. His fund of satire is inexhaustible, and he draws upon it constantly, to the eminent delectation of his hearers. He was introduced by Hon. F. P. Randall, who has performed this service for almost every orator who has spoken here thus far. The appearance of the speaker was the signal for a spontaneous burst of applause, which arose from every part of the house, and continued for several minutes. When the cheering had subsided the speaker began by saying that he was worn out with constant exertion, having made speeches twice a day, with one or two exceptions, for the past three weeks. He would waste no time in preliminaries, but proceed at once to the discussion of the question which interested every one of his hearers. He stated that he went into the campaign simply and solely from a desire to see corruption and knavery removed from the high places, and he felt confident that his wish in this direction would reach a happy fruition, for he was sure that a radical change is imminent. He reviewed the history of the dominant party from its organization to the present. We venture to say that any one in the audience with Republican proclivities, who followed the speaker closely in his exposure of the party's guilt, must indeed be hard to convince if he still persists in upholding the Republican party. The speaker's review of Garfield's record was scathing, and, withal, amusing and provoked much laughter. In flashes of wit and satire Mr. Irish approaches Ingersoll as near as any one we have ever heard. Any Republican who may have been in the hall during the speaker's exposure of the De Golyer candidate must have felt heartily ashamed of his candidate. The tirade inaugurated against English was torn to pieces by the speaker, and Arthur received a due amount of attention. Throughout the entire speech which last nearly two hours, the speaker held the audience spell-bound, and when he essayed to conclude, loud cries of "Go on!" "Go on!" filled the hall, and the speaker was forced to continue, although it was very evident that he was suffering from hoarseness, brought on by over-exertion. When he had finally concluded he advanced to the front of the platform and proposed three rousing cheers for the Democratic candidates, State and National, which were given with a hearty good will, and the vast assemblage began to file slowly out of the building, satisfied that the last Democratic speech, before to-morrow's struggle, was one to be proud of.
